THE SPIRIT OF NATURE.

By H. BELLYSE BAILDON, B.A. Cantab.

"He [Mr. Baildon] writes with so much verve, with such an exquisite appreciation of the beauty of nature, with such evident earnestness, and often with such genuine eloquence of a high order . . . —Academy. "This is one of the most refreshing books we have for a long time met with. It is by a scientific student, but can be recommended for its charming style and healthy tone."—Dublin University Review. "Mr. Baildon's essays form a pretty and an interesting volume. It is rich in the fruit of a loving study of nature, a study which the author has evidently prosecuted, not only in the laboratory and with the microscope, but by first-hand observation of her quiet spots and secret way."—Modern Review.

London: J. & A. CHURCHILL, 11, New Burlington-street.

BY THE SAME AUTHOR. Price 5s.

MORNING CLOUDS: being divers Poems.

"Mr. Baildon possesses originality—a rare gift in these days."—Athenaeum. "The 'Child of Shame' and 'Two Friends' are worthy of Browning at his best."—Grainger. "The author of 'Rosamond' is a true poet. The wealth of thought, freshness of feeling, and beauty of diction which marked his earlier efforts appear in 'Morning Clouds' in a richer form and with a more mellowness of splendour."—Edinburgh Daily Review.

Edinburgh: DAVID DOUGLAS.

London: HAMILTON, ADAMS, & CO.

Also, Price 3s.

ROSAMOND: a Tragic Drama.

"'Rosamond' is a drama of really considerable merit. This is not the Gothic Rosamond we know from Gibbon, who is a woman more like Frodo's 'Mary Stuart' or the 'Lucretia Borgia' of tradition. Mr. Baildon's Rosamond belongs to much purer, more crystalline British Quarterly Review.

"They are on tinted paper, and form a charming little book. . . . The work is full of charms, and the painting of the plants is perfect, and deserves the highest praise."—Examiner.

"The general fidelity to nature is remarkable, and affords an illustration that special training is requisite for the botanical artist. The plates afford a striking contrast to the blundering prettiness that amateur artists indulge in."—Athenaeum.

GLIMPSES of BIRD LIFE, Portrayed with Pen and Pencil. By J. E. HARTING and J. P. ROBERT. Double fcap. folio, magnificently bound in rich cloth, with numerous Woodcuts and Twenty exquisite Full-Page Coloured Plates in the highest style of Art, £2 2s.

"Would look well on a drawing-room table, and, what is not a universal quality of such literature, will repay a closer inspection. . . . Mr. Robert has been very happy, and in handling some of the smaller birds has managed to infuse a deal of character into the portrait. Most of his illustrations are notable instances of this felicitous mixture, and his cheerful warbling of his sprightly song from the budding spray is a particularly vigorous and life-like drawing."—Times.

"We hail with satisfaction the advent of an artist who can produce such work as this. . . . Mr. Robert has made a special study of bird-life, and we are not overrating his work when we say that these pictures are far in advance of anything of the kind hitherto produced. . . . The birds are all life-size."—Zoologist.

IMPORTANT ARCHAEOLOGICAL WORKS ON SPAIN.

CARDERERA y Solano (Valentin) ICONOGRAFIA

ESPAÑOLA, coleccion de Retratos, Estatuas, Mausoléos, y demas Monumentos inéditos, de Reyes, Reinas, grandes Capitanes, escritores, y otros personajes celebres de la nacion, desde el siglo
XI. hasta el XVII., copiados de los originales; con texto biografico y descriptivo en Espanol y Frances. 2 vols., royal folio. Ninety-two fine Plates taken from original Paintings and Sepulchral Monuments, Nine of which are beautifully Illuminated in Gold and Colours, half-morocco, gilt tops, uncut. Madrid, 1855-64. £12 12s.

— the same, GRAND PAPIER VELIN, half-morocco, gilt tops, uncut, 1855-64. £21.

One of the most magnificent books on the Art-Monuments of Spain, and probably superior to any other in the accuracy and learning of its author. The series of illustrations was selected from works of art which were excellent by reason of their historical character or the beauty of their execution. Only 275 copies were printed, of which about 150 were absorbed by subscribers amongst the aristocracy of Spain. The book may therefore be regarded as virtually unpublished, and as likely before long, in consequence of its intrinsic worth and the short supply of copies, to become a costly rarity.

MONUMENTOS ARQUITECTON-

ICOS de ESPAÑA, publicados a expensas del
Estado bajo de la direccion de una Comision Especial creada por el Ministerio de Fomento.
Parts I. to LXXXIII., atlas folio, with over 220 fine large Plates, of which more than Sixty are beautifully printed in Colours, heightened with Gold, Vignettes on Letterpress, and Capital
Letters in Colours, in Parts. £75. Madrid, Imprenta y Calcografia Nacional, 1859-80.

N.B.—The Monographs hitherto incomplete are now being concluded: Titles and Indices to them being issued in the later parts.

One of the grandest works ever published on the Architecture and Architectural Decoration of any country. The Art-Treasures deposited in a building are also described and figured. The additional range of subject obtained by this means gives the publication an interest to all Art-Lovers, for whose convenience the text is written in both French and Spanish. Mr. Quaritch is the sole agent in England.

OWEN JONES'S ALHAMBRA:

Plans, Elevations, and Sections of the Alhambra, with the elaborate details of this beautiful specimen of Moorish Architecture, minutely displayed in 102 beautifully engraved Plates, Sixty-seven of which are highly finished in Gold and Colours, from Drawings taken on the spot, by JULES GOURY and OWEN JONES, with a complete Translation of the Arabic Inscriptions, and an Historical Notice of the Kings of Granada, by P. DE GAYANGOS. 2 vols., atlas folio (published at £24), half red morocco, gilt edges, £13 13s.

— the same, LARGE PAPER, colombier folio, the Chromo-lithographed Plates in Colours, the same as those on small paper, but the Copper-plates printed on India Paper (published at £36), half-bound morocco, gilt edges, £18 18s.
[1842-45.]

This is, without exception, one of the most sumptuous works ever executed in any country, but its high price has hitherto kept it out of the hands of all but the wealthy. It is of equal interest to the Amateur, the Architect, the Sculptor, and the Decorator, for nothing can exceed the number, variety, and beauty of the Ornaments and Details. It is accompanied by a complete Translation, by Pasqual de Gayangos, of the Arabic Inscriptions and an Historical Notice of the Kings of Granada, from the Conquest of that City by the Arabs to the Expulsion of the Moors.

"The Alhambra still exists—one of the most recent of European ruins. It is the most perfect in repair and the richest in design, and is still one of the most wonderful productions of Eastern splendour."

MURPHY'S ARABIAN ANTIQUI-

TIES of SPAIN, representing in 100 very highly finished line Engravings by LE KEUX, FINDEN, LANDSEER, G. COOKE, &c., the most remarkable Remains of the Architecture, Sculpture, Paintings, and Mosaics of the Spanish Arabs, now existing in the Peninsula, including the Magnificent Palace of Alhambra, the celebrated Mosque and Bridge at Cordova, the Royal Villa of Generalife, and the Casa de Carbon; accompanied by Letterpress descriptions. In 1 vol., atlas folio, fine impressions of the Plates (published at £42), half-morocco, gilt edges, £6 6s. [1813.]

— the same, with a volume containing Sixty original Drawings, and Thirty-two Plates, highly finished in Colours and Gold together.
2 vols., atlas folio, half red morocco, richly gilt backs, £25. [1813.]

"The most splendid work of any period connected with that interesting kingdom, Spain, is Murphy's magnificent folio devoted to its Moorish Antiquities—a work beyond all price, if the brilliancy and beauty of the plates be considered.
Too much cannot be said in commendation of this extraordinary and most exquisite publication. . . . The interiors described, both by the pencil and the pen, have the effect of enchantment. A delicacy, brilliancy, singularity, and even dazzling richness, are the characteristics of most of them."—DIBDIN'S Bibliomania.

MURPHY (J.) PLANS, ELEVA-

TIONS, SECTIONS, and VIEWS of the CHURCH of BATALHA, in Estremadura, with History and Description by LUIS DE SOUSA. Royal folio, Twenty-seven Plates, half-morocco, 20s.
[1836.]

"One of the most perfect and splendid churches in Christendom—the great Portuguese Abbey of Batalha. This is known to have been designed and mainly constructed by an English architect, and amid the gorgeous and most extraordinary medley of Gothic, Moorish, Renaissance, and Hindoo ornamentation which this unique work displays, a pure thread of English early perpendicular Gothic art is manifested in forms and details of admirable grace and beauty."—J. C. ROBINSON.

The Dedication of the First Edition, to the Rt. Hon. Wm.
Conyngham—an engraved leaf with Portrait—is replaced in the Second by a Dedication to Sir J. Soane.

MAJOR (Richard Henry), The DIS-

COVERIES of PRINCE HENRY, the NAVIGATOR, and their RESULTS: being the Narrative of the Discovery by Sea, within One Century, of more than half the World. 8vo, illuminated Portrait, with Maps and Plates (published at 15s.), cloth, 7s. 6d. [1877.]

Although many persons, to whom the name of Prince Henry is unfamiliar, might imagine that this book was one of limited interest, it nevertheless is the only exact and scientific History of Geographical Discovery in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries. It does not end with the life of the Prince, but pursues the results of the grand movement initiated by him, and is therefore indispensable in every library that contains the records of early discovery in AMERICA, EASTERN ASIA, and AUSTRALIA. The voyages of COLUMBUS, VESPUCCI, CABOT, CABRAL, VASCO DA GAMA, are critically reviewed, and the first navigation to the shores of Australia is finally elucidated once for all by Mr. Major.

PRIMER of FRENCH LITERATURE.
By GEORGE SAINTSBURY. Extra fcap. 8vo, cloth, 2s.
"This is a book which is not only indispensable to the beginner in French literature, but most useful to the reader who has wandered at his will, picking and choosing at random in the garden which Mr. Saintsbury has made completely his own. So much recent writing on French literature has been scandalously inaccurate, flippant, and dull, that Mr. Saintsbury and the Clarendon Press confer a really rare benefit on the public in this little introduction to a wide subject."—Daily News.

INTERNATIONAL LAW. By William EDWARD HALL, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. Demy 8vo, cloth, 21s.

THE CONSTRUCTION of HEALTHY DWELLINGS—namely, Houses, Hospitals, Barracks, Asylums, &c. By DOUGLAS GALTON, late Royal Engineer, C.B., F.R.S., &c. Demy 8vo, cloth, 10s. 6d.
"Great simplicity of language and a liberal supply of woodcuts bring all the subjects discussed within the reach of those readers who are altogether without special knowledge; while the mastery displayed over all the applications of physical and physiological laws of hygiene entitles the book to a standard place in technical literature."—Academy.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL HISTORY of ENGLAND, in its ORIGIN and DEVELOPMENT. By WILLIAM STUBBS, D.D., Regius Professor of Modern History. Library Edition. 3 vols., demy 8vo, cloth, £2 8s. [Also crown 8vo Edition, 3 vols., cloth, 12s. each.]
"The most valuable contribution to the knowledge of English constitutional history and law in our generation."—Westminster Review.

ITALY and HER INVADERS, A.D. 376-476. By T. HODGKIN, Fellow of University College, London. Illustrated with Plates and Maps. 2 vols., 8vo, cloth, £1 12s.
"To his task Mr. Hodgkin has brought scholarly precision and workmanlike skill. But he has done more than this. He has brought also keen interest and power of realisation of the events with which he deals. His book is one of a class which only an Englishman can write. It bears on every page the mark of being written by a man who is not only a scholar, but is also conversant with affairs. Everything in it is vital with the life of our own day; occurrences are paralleled and characters illustrated from modern politics."—Times.

EXERCISES in PRACTICAL CHEMISTRY. Vol. I. (ELEMENTARY EXERCISES.) By A. G. VERNON HARCOURT, M.A., F.R.S., Senior Student of Christ Church, and Lecturer in Chemistry; and H. G. MADAM, M.A., Fellow of Queen's College, Oxford. Third Edition, Revised and considerably Enlarged. Crown 8vo, cloth, 9s.

A LATIN DICTIONARY, Founded on Andrews' Edition of Freund's Latin Dictionary. By CHARLTON T. LEWIS, Ph.D., and CHARLES SHOOT, LL.D. 4to, cloth, £1 11s. 6d.
"Must supersede all its rivals for common use."
Prof. J. E. B. MAYOR in Notes and Queries.

"The etymological notes certainly far surpass in accuracy and fullness anything as yet attempted in any dictionary."—Athenaeum.
"The work of Messrs. Lewis and Shoot is a real advance on any previous Latin-English Dictionary. The orthography has been corrected throughout, a step which, however obvious, easy, and necessary, is of immense practical benefit to Latin scholarship in England, where we have for some time, in books available for school teaching, been troubled with mere confusion in this matter."—Prof. NETTLESHIP in the Academy.
"What would not the scholars of the last century have given for such a Latin Dictionary? The great advances which philological study has made of late years, and the vastly increased knowledge of ancient life and thought, have given to this Dictionary a scholarly completeness which places it in the very first rank among works of reference. It will undoubtedly become a standard authority."—Westminster Review.
"Those who wish to purchase a new Latin-English Dictionary had better invest in this, as embodying the latest results of Latin scholarship, and giving all that the others give, and more."—Guardian.

AN ETYMOLOGICAL DICTIONARY of the ENGLISH LANGUAGE, arranged on an Historical Basis. By W. W. SKELT, M.A. To be completed in Four Parts. Parts I.—III., 4to, 10s. 6d. each. Part IV. in the Press.

"Its merits are those of laborious and conscientiously accurate research, guided by profound learning and never-failing sagacity."
H. SWIFT in the Academy.
"When completed it will be honourably distinguished as the first thorough-going attempt to write the history of every word in the language. . . . He has laid down the lines of an etymological dictionary so well and accurately, that little will remain for his successors but to fill in his omissions, and correct his occasional errors."—English Independent.
"A work of enormous and self-denying labour, and quite unusual erudition, which, if it ends as it begins, should be a national possession."—Daily News.

OLD ROME: a Handbook of the Ruins of the Ancient

'Old Rome,' which is amply illustrated, contains everything likely to be of immediate service to the traveller; but the handbook, useful though it be, does not in any degree lessen the importance of the larger work. WE and the WORLD: a Story for Boys. With Seven Illustrations by W. L. Jones.

"A very good book it is, full of adventures graphically told. . . . The style is just what it should be, simple, but not bald, full of pleasant humour, and with some pretty touches of feeling. Like all Mrs. Ewing's tales, it is sound, sensible, and wholesome."—Times.

"The same unaccountable capacity, so rare even in men, so all but invariably absent even in the most motherly of women, of getting inside a boy's mind, thinking his thoughts, and being then able to put them down on paper so that everyone at once recognises their photographic truthfulness—just as in George Eliot's peasant talk—which Mrs. Ewing has displayed before, is evident here."—Academy.

Uniform Edition, with Ten Illustrations by Mrs. Allingham, 5s.

SIX to SIXTEEN: a Story for Girls. Fifth Edition.

"The tone of the book is pleasant and healthy, and singularly free from that sentimental, not to say 'mawkish,' stain which is apt to disfigure such productions. The illustrations by Mrs. Allingham add a special attraction to the little volume."—Times.

Uniform Edition, with Twelve Illustrations by Mrs. Allingham, Ninth Edition, 5s.

A FLAT IRON for a FARTHING; or, Some Passages in the Life of an Only Son.

"Let every parent and guardian who wishes to be amused, and at the same time to please a child, purchase 'A Flat Iron for a Farthing.' We will answer for the delight with which they will read it themselves, and we do not doubt that the young and fortunate recipients will also like it. The story is quaint, original, and altogether delightful."—Athenaeum.

Uniform Edition, with Ten Illustrations by Pasquier and Wolf, Third Edition, 5s.

MRS. OVERTHEWAY'S REMEMBRANCES.

"Without exception, 'Mrs. Overthway's Remembrances' is the most delightful work avowedly written for children that we have ever read. There are passages in this book which the genius of George Eliot would be proud to own."—Leader.

Uniform Edition, with Eleven Illustrations by Mrs. Allingham, Second Edition, 5s.

JAN of the WINDMILL: a Story of the Plains.

Also a Larger Edition, crown 8vo, 8s. 6d.

"It is a long time since we have read anything in its way so good. . . . Such a book is like a day in June—as sweet and as wholesome as anything can be. . . . Good as Miss Alcott's breezy stories are, even they are but juvenile beside such writing as this."—American Church Union.

Uniform Edition, with Four Illustrations, 5s.

A GREAT EMERGENCY, and other Tales.

"Never has Mrs. Ewing published a more charming volume of stories, and that is saying a very great deal."—Academy.

New Volume by F. M. PEARD, Author of "The Rose Garden," "Cartouche,"

"Unawares," &c.

MOTHER MOLLY: a Story for Young People. With Eight Illustrations by Charles Green, and a Pictorial Design on Cover. Small post 8vo, 5s.

"This is a pretty picture of a quiet Devonshire household, not without those excitements which must have fallen to the lot of most families whose fortune it was to live within sight of French ships at the end of the last century."—Athenaeum.

"The story is to other Christmas works what Mr. Blackmore's stories are to ordinary novels. It is fresh, a little quaint, and is, in fact, a charming idyl of the latter end of the last century."—Standard.

By the SAME AUTHOR.

THROUGH ROUGH WATERS: a Story for Young

People. With Eleven Illustrations. Small post 8vo, 5s.

OUR PETS and PLAYFELLOWS, in Air, Earth, and Water. By GERTRUDE PATMORE. With Four Illustrations by Bertha Patmore. Crown 8vo, 3s. 6d.

"Real stories about dogs, and birds, ponies, cats, kittens, dormice, rabbits, and other dumb creatures, which the writer and her family circle have delighted to tame and domesticate. This is a pleasing little book, written with good taste, and calculated to engage the attention of the young in a healthy way."—Daily News.

"Stories about animals, if written with simplicity and veracity, are always pleasant reading, and Miss Patmore's history of household pets is one of the pleasantest."—St. James's Gazette.

It unites the utmost lucidity with strict scientific accuracy, and deals with ascertained facts rather than with vague theories."—Greenock Daily Telegraph.
